

Live Streaming Concert with Legendary Hit-Maker and Pioneer in the Evolution of Soul, Funk and R&B...

D-Train

Too often we end up finding ourselves wishing we had the chance to experience some of the great legendary music greats and pioneers before they take their final bow on stage. If you weren't one of the people who got the chance to be there when Michael Jackson first did the moonwalk, or when Jimi Hendrix lit his guitar on fire. If you wish you had been there to sing along in call and response with "aye ohs" along with Freddie Mercury for the Live Aid concert. Or if you dreamt that you had gotten the opportunity to be in there when Kurt Cobain sang "Where Did You Sleep Last Night" on MTV Unplugged. Then, don't allow the chance to pass you by when you're lucky enough to be one of those in attendance to experience a true legend in R&B, Soul and Funk when he returns to the stage for a once in a lifetime, first ever internationally live streaming music concert experience.

It's easy folks. We are bringing this moment directly to you. You don't have to wait in lines or stand in crowds and fight to find a good vantage point where you can see the whole stage and catch every moment as history makes its mark. This is a once in a lifetime moment where past and present merge together in a single night of music and entertainment from one of the greatest music artists who helped to pave the way and make Soul, Funk and R&B music the staple that it became and remains to this day. This man is one of the great inspirations for so many artists who would later take the stage, and without the influence of the original creators of the styles of music we know and love, well music sure wouldn't be the same and your favorite artists would never have been handed the torch they carry on.

So, this is your chance to experience a legendary moment in music history and be able to say you were there. And you can even do it from the comfort of your living room sofa, or your favorite chair.

One night only! The Legendary Musician and Early Influential Entertainer and Revolutionary Contributor to the very Personification of Funk, Soul and R&B, D-Train Williams will once again take the stage for a digitally streamed music journey from classic hits to new and evolutionary sounds that will make this a night of firsts and you must be there to experience for yourself. Don't let this be the next once in a lifetime opportunity missed. This time, you have the chance to be there!
